ITE Commends the Selection of Pete Buttigieg for Transportation Secretary

WASHINGTON, DC — The Institute of Transportation Engineers (ITE) commends President-elect Biden for his selection of Pete Buttigieg for Transportation Secretary.

"We are very pleased with the selection of former Mayor Buttigieg for this important position leading the U.S. Department of Transportation (USDOT). His experience as the Mayor of South Bend, IN USA provides him with an understanding of the critical role that Infrastructure investments play in our economy, our climate, and our ability to provide safe and equitable mobility choices." said Jeffrey F. Paniati, ITE executive director and CEO. "ITE looks forward to continuing our work with USDOT to help meet the needs of all users of the nation's transportation system."

About ITE -- Founded in 1930, ITE is a community of transportation professionals including transportation engineers, transportation planners, consultants, educators, technologists, and researchers. Through meetings, seminars, publications, and a network of more than 16,000 members working in 78 countries, ITE connects members to a world of ideas, people, and resources.
